Intuit Updates Progress on Fixes to Its Minnesota State Consumer and Professional Tax Products

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Intuit Inc. (Nasdaq: INTU) today provided a status update on progress made to resolve issues with its TurboTax, ProSeries, Intuit Online and Lacerte products impacting Minnesota state tax returns.

This statement can be attributed to Bob Meighan, vice president of Intuit.

“Intuit released fixes today to resolve programming errors in our consumer and professional tax products and is communicating directly with affected customers who file returns in the state of Minnesota. We’ve had all hands on deck to address these issues and reassure the state and our customers that our Minnesota state products are accurate and complete.

“We are continuing to work closely with the Minnesota Department of Revenue to fully resolve any remaining impact to customers’ returns. We remain committed to ongoing and transparent communication in service to Minnesota taxpayers.

“Intuit will issue refunds to affected Minnesota state TurboTax customers for the full amount of their tax preparation fees. Nothing is more important to us than delivering an accurate return to our customers and building the trust and confidence professional preparers and taxpayers have in Intuit.”
