ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

In December 2010, William V. Campbell, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Intuit Inc., adopted a stock trading plan related to the exercise and sale of up to 100,000 shares of Intuit common stock issuable under options granted in 2001. Subject to the terms and conditions of this plan, a brokerage firm may periodically exercise Mr. Campbell's stock options and sell the issued shares at predetermined minimum prices before the options expire in April 2011.

In December 2010, Scott D. Cook, founder and board member of Intuit Inc., adopted a stock trading plan on behalf of his family trust and six grantor retained annuity trusts, of which he is a trustee, to sell up to 2,018,360 shares of Intuit common stock and contribute up to 400,000 additional shares to the Valhalla Charitable Foundation between February 2011 and December 2011. Subject to the terms and conditions of this plan, Mr. Cook's family trust and the grantor retained annuity trusts will periodically sell up to 2,018,360 shares and contribute up to 400,000 shares to the charitable foundation provided certain limit prices are reached.

These plans are intended to satisfy the requirements of Rule 10b5-1 of the Exchange Act and were adopted in accordance with Intuit's policies regarding securities transactions. Rule 10b5-1 permits individuals who are not in possession of material, non-public information at the time the plan is adopted to establish pre-arranged plans to buy or sell company stock.

Transactions under these plans will be disclosed publicly through Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, to the extent required by law.

The Valhalla Charitable Foundation also adopted a stock trading plan in December 2010 to sell up to 400,000 shares of Intuit stock contributed by Mr. Cook's family trust during the same period provided certain limit prices are reached.
